

Good Governance

The Club attempts to adopt a professional attitude in all that it does. To work towards this, the Club has developed a number of policies and procedures. The following is an example of this:

Policies the club has:

- Child Protection
- Equality/Diversity
- Code of conduct for Parents, players, coaches and volunteers

Procedures the club encourages:

- CRB checks on all Coaches/volunteers
- All Coaches/Volunteers are insured
- Carrying out health and Safety checks on facilities/provision
- Observing good practice on data protection/storage and photography/filming

In order to demonstrate the Club's commitment, the club is working towards a number of good practice standards:

- Make Space Status Club (Achieved in 2005)
- British Sports Trust - JSLA/CSLA (Achieved Delivery centre status in 2006)
- FA Charter Club - (Achieved February 2007)
- ECB Club Mark (Achieved March 2007)
- PQASSO Standard (Achieved Level One 2008)
